Welcome to Our Web Site!

Today is the day to change the rest of your life...

Dear Friends...

The book Love on Purpose asks some probing questions: Are you tired of leaving dating to luck, surviving bad fix-ups, repeatedly meeting the wrong people, and feeling hopeless about ever finding the right relationship? Are you exhausted by the continual roller coaster of excitement, hopefulness and then disappointment in your relationship life? Are you tired of Internet dating disasters? Are you ready to take charge of this important part of your life and quit leaving so much to chance?

Can You Answer Yes to the following Questions?

- Are you ready to do more than wish your life would change?
- Are you a discriminating single who demands the best?
- Are you a person who's unwilling to settle for less?
- Do you care more about finding the right person than caring what your friends think?
- Do you believe you get what you pay for?
- Do you take responsibility for your own life?
- Are you too busy to spend time seeking a partner?
- Are you tired of the bar scene and the head games?
- Would you like to share your life with a loving friend and partner?

We have answers for your questions.

Preference Introduction's 24-year reputation for helping discerning people in the Springfield area find potential romantic relationships has paved the way for more than 40,000 introductions. Our unique system of bringing you together with other quality singles is both fun and successful.

"It saves a lot of time and puts you more at ease knowing so much about each other before you even meet."

"We were impressed how easily we met compatible singles."

"It's so much better than the bar scene. The staff seems like friends fixing you up, except they don't run out of people."

"We found Preference members were more determined in cultivating good relationships."

"We were tired of using the same old options for meeting people, and now we are celebrating our eighth anniversary."
